Test.Cas. 55/2017

1. The matter is listed today for further cross-examination of PW1/Mr. Subhash Chander on behalf of respondent no.2. The said witness is present today.

2. Adjournment has been sought by learned counsel for the respondent no. 2 on the ground that the leading counsel is suffering from eye infection. Opposed vehemently by the Learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that the witness is travelling from Canada and has been cross-examined on behalf of respondent no. 2 for at least 10 dates.

3. Considering the medical reason cited for inability of the leading counsel to conduct the cross-examination today, adjournment is granted by way of last and final opportunity.
