CORAM:
HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE REKHA PALLI

O R D E R

% 16.08.2023

1. On the last date, after this Court had considered the submissions of learned counsel for the parties at length and was about to pass an order on merits, learned counsel for the judgment debtor had, on instructions, submitted that the judgment debtor was willing to make an endeavour to amicably settle the matter.
2. Today, he submits that the judgment debtor is willing to pay a sum of Rs.40 lakh to the decree holder towards full and final settlement of all the dues of the decree holder.
3. Learned counsel for the decree holder while submitting that the said amount is on the lower side, submits that the decree holder is still willing to settle the matter if the judgment debtor comes up with a fair offer.
4. In the light of the aforesaid stand taken by the parties, I am of the view that it would be appropriate that the parties are referred to
