2.1 Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the FIR in question was lodged against unknown persons, alleging the theft of utensils, tube lights and electric wires. It is contended that the offences alleged are triable by a Magistrate and that the charge-sheet has already been filed.

2.2 Learned counsel further submits that the applicant has been arrested solely on the basis of suspicion, without any substantive material connecting him with the alleged offences. It is also contended that no recovery remains to be effected from the applicant and, therefore, his continued incarceration would not serve any useful purpose.

3. Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

4. Heard learned counsel for applicant and learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material placed on record.

5. Having regard to the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case, and considering the fact that the offences alleged against the applicant are triable by a Magistrate; that the applicant has been in custody since 04.08.2026; that no recovery remains to be effected from him; and that the trial is likely to take considerable time, this Court is of the considered view that the applicant deserves to be enlarged on bail at this stage. Accordingly, without expressing any opinion on the merits or
